Defendant. )

Plaintiff brings this personal injury lawsuit against defendant for injuries sustained resulting from an alleged electrical shock at defendant's store. The parties exchanged Rule 26 disclosures, and discovery requests have been served. Defendant seeks signed medical authorizations, medical records, medical billing information, and a date for plaintiff's deposition. Despite contacting counsel for plaintiff by phone and letter, and counsel's at least partial agreement to provide the information defendant seeks, defendant has not received the information it seeks. Defendant thus filed the instant motion to compel (#15) on May 20, 2019.
